Florida Cleft Palate-Craniofacial Association, Inc.

Dear current FCPA members and past friends:

The winter symposium of the Florida Cleft Palate - Craniofacial Association, will be held January 9 -11 of 2009 (Parents conference 1/10/2009).

Our key speaker will be Dr Andrew Lidral. Dr Lidral is an associate professor in the department of orthodontics at the University of Iowa. The focus of Dr. Lidral's research is craniofacial developmental genetics. Specifically, his goal is to identify the genetic causes of craniofacial birth defects, including syndromic and nonsyndromic forms of orofacial clefting.

The Symposium will be at The Plaza Resort and Spa, 600 North Atlantic Avenue, Daytona Beach, Fl. 32118. Reservations may be made directly to The Plaza Resort and Spa, Toll Free at 1-800-DAYTONA (800-329-8662). Visit the web site: www.plazaresortandspa.com

The deadline for guaranteed reduced rate of $ 139.00 is 12/15/08. The reduced rate is good from 1/8/09 - 1/12/09. Rooms are subject to availability, so book as early as possible!

Attached is the Call for Papers and Disclosure form (Due September 30th, 2008) and a membership application to share with your colleagues. All of these are also available to print from our website: www.floridacleft.org.

Thank you for your current/past interest in our association and we look forward to seeing you in January!

Sincerely,

Calogero Dolce, DDS, PhD
